

Jessica Gearino Harrison Bulldog Award 2021 Award Nomination Form

79th ISBA Annual Convention | November 17-19, 2021 | Boise Centre

In the 19th Century, the term “bulldog spirit” was used to describe a spirit of unrelenting courage.

What is the bulldog award?

This award recognizes an individual who best embodies the “bulldog spirit” of Jessica Harrison, through their tenacious efforts to support and provide leadership through legislative advocacy on behalf of Idaho’s public schools with unrelenting courage.

The award will be given at ISBA’s Annual Convention in November.

The deadline for submitting this nomination form is October 1st, 2021.

Please email the completed form to quinn@idsba.org.

1 NOMINEE INFORMATION

Name

District/Charter Name

2 NOMINATOR INFORMATION

Name

Mailing Address

Day Phone

Email

3 TELL US MORE (On another sheet of paper please provide information on the following topics:)

What are we looking for?

This award should honor an individual for their leadership and advocacy at the local, county, regional, state, and/or federal level. Though it is preferable that the nominee is a school board member or school leader, it is not required.

 Please provide information in a letter, or in 2-3 short paragraphs, or 500 words or less.

Example outcome(s) of their work may include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Public policy work that supports public education;
- 2) Legislative/advocacy work that creates new funding, resources, or programs for public schools;
- 3) Defeat or repeal of legislation that is harmful to public schools;
- 4) Efforts that increase elected officials’ awareness of and/or support for Idaho’s public schools.

QUESTIONS?

Quinn Perry, Policy & Government Affairs Director
ISBA, PO Box 9797 • Boise, ID 83707-4797

Phone: (866) 799-4722 or (208) 854-1476
Fax: (208) 854-1480 • E-mail: quinn@idsba.org